Getting to Essex

This year Derby Day is being held at the University of Essex in Colchester. Below is a guide of how to get yourself there to back the Yellow and Blue army!

Public Transport

It's straightforward to get to the University of Essex via public transport. Details of the most efficient journey are below and include a bus, train and short walk.

Take 25/26 bus from campus to Norwich Train Station - 30 minutes.

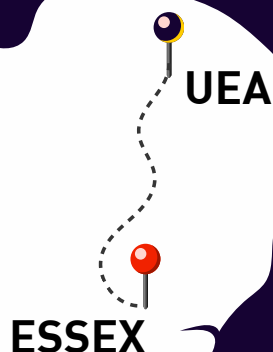

Train from Norwich to Hythe (Essex) station. Return ticket £15 at time of writing - 1hr 45mins.

Walk from Hythe station to University of Essex Campus - 17 minutes.

Total time: 2hrs 32mins each way. Total cost: £19 (includes return).

By Car

The drive to the University of Essex campus is an hour and a half away by car at a rough fuel cost of £18 for a return journey. It is 63 miles each way and a straightforward drive down the A140 to the campus.

Sports on Offer

There are the sports participating in Derby Day 2024. The full timetable will be released in due course. All fixtures are between 09:00 and 19:30.

Facilities at Essex

At Essex there are a range of food options, including vegan, vegetarian and gluten free food. There are accessible paths and accessible toilets all over campus. Below is a map of where sports will be, as well as an indication of where catering outlets are situated.

How to follow Derby Day live

There are plenty of ways to follow Derby Day 2024 live if you can't make it to Essex to spectate. Throughout the day we will provide you with results and score updates alongside other content to immerse you in the Derby Day experience.

Regular score updates and fixture results will be provided on the UEA+Sport and UEA SU Instagram pages. Additionally, other media outlets from UEA will be in Essex to cover the day, their account @s are found at the bottom.

Regular score updates and fixture results will be provided on the official UEA Derby Day website, details of this will be released before the event.

Livewire, UEA's student radio, will be broadcasting select fixtures live on the day. These fixtures will be announced before the day, head to their Instagram page for the link to listen on the day.
